

Error & Omission

Errors and Omissions Insurance provides insurance coverage for lawsuits that are a result of the rendering of professional services. We work with our clients in helping them analyze the E & O insurance coverage's most suitable for them. Depending upon the industry, state, size and history of the company, any number of professional liability options are available. We maintain strong relationships with many carriers that can custom tailor a program for your organization.